

We Lead the Hurting to Wholeness Home Group Leader Materials

Discussion and Additional Scripture:

God designed us to desire wholeness.

The apostle Paul prays for our wholeness in 1 Thess. 5:23 "May God Himself, the God of peace, sanctify you through and through. May your whole spirit, soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ."

After accepting Christ, there is a process of sanctification. During that process, each of us can be helpful to one another and encouraging as we are lead from hurting to wholeness.

Our wholeness as humans includes our spirit, soul and body. When we pursue wholeness in Christ, we move away from destructive things and toward things that are meaningful and biblical. We move away from greed and toward generosity, away from anxiety and toward peace, away from fear and toward courage, away from despair and toward hope. Ultimately, away from sin and toward forgiveness, and a life with Jesus Christ.

Romans 12:2 "Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is- his good, pleasing and perfect will."

Questions:

What stood out to you the most from the video?

Which hurts are you more likely to connect with in others, and be able to confidently lead them toward wholeness and Christ?

What habit or consistent behavior can you develop in order to lead the hurting to wholeness consistently or as part of your family routine?

What are ways that we can lead the hurting to wholeness as a church?

